

Zurich Insurance of valuables

Jewelry, watches, furs and other valuables are among the things dear to you. With Zurich Insurance of valuables, your valuables are insured on an All risk basis, affording you optimal protection against loss, damage and destruction.

Your benefits at a glance

- All risk insurance: the best protection for your valuable property items
- The “Earthquake” and “Contingency insurance and costs” policy components protect you in a disaster situation and against special risks
- Insured worldwide: worry-free travel

Who benefits from Zurich Insurance of valuables?

Anyone who wants comprehensive insurance protection for their jewelry or other valuable items.

Benefits

Zurich Insurance of valuables protects your valuable property items against the financial consequences of loss, damage and destruction (All risk insurance).

The insurance covers the amount required to replace your valuables with an item of the same kind and quality at new value, but no more than the agreed sum insured. The deductible can be set individually.

Coverage options

You can add a supplement to the All risk insurance coverage upon request to enhance your financial security in the following situations:

Earthquakes

This coverage applies even in the event of this potentially most destructive of natural disasters. This includes: earthquakes and volcanic eruptions, as well as consequential damage caused by looting.

Contingency insurance and costs

This additional coverage also protects you in the event of an appreciation in value of your object, or in the case of new acquisitions. In addition, the protection extends to removal and disposal costs in the event of damage, as well as rental costs of certain replacement items (e.g. replacement musical instruments).
